The Recession Reinvention Breakfast Seminar

can help put the snap, crackle, pop back in your business.

Speaker/Moderator:

Rich Homberg

*President and General Manager
Detroit Public Television*

Learn how other businesses are surviving and thriving by using the recession to reinvent processes, services, and products.

Local and national examples of reinvention strategies and best practices will be examined by The Alliance, a group of experts in the business consulting, insurance, legal, staffing, security, and marketing industries.

Moderation by Rich Homberg, who recently reinvented himself from mega commercial radio management to President and General Manager of Detroit Public Television.
